Golf Manor Installs New Mayor, Clerk- Treasurer and 2 Council Members

GOLF MANOR, OH – December 16, 2015 – The Village of Golf Manor’s regular council meeting on Monday, December 14, 2015, saw the installation of a newly elected mayor Ron Hirth, clerk-treasurer Brenda Dubose and two council members, Bob Harper and Greg Schwartzberg.

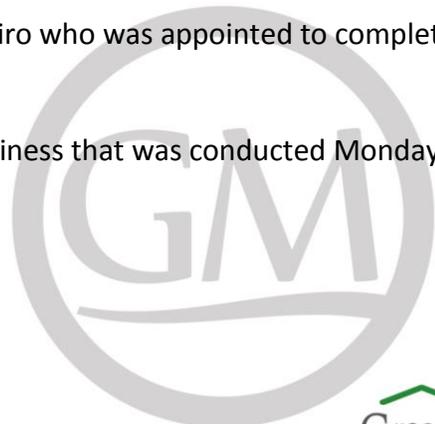

Hirth, a member of Council who was elected as mayor on November 3rd, succeeding long-time Mayor, Alan Zaffiro who retired after 3 terms. Hirth has served on council since appointed to a vacant seat in May, 2013 and elected to council in November, 2013. He has served as chair of council’s economic development committee and the financial sustainability, planning and development committee.

Brenda Dubose, previously a member of council whose term expired in 2015 was elected as clerk-treasurer, after serving multiple terms as a member of council and most recently as vice-mayor of the village.

Bob Harper, a long-time fire captain was appointed to a vacant seat in June and also won election in November along with newcomer Greg Schwartzberg, who had served with Harper as a resident member of council’s sustainability committee.

Hirth’s vacant council seat was filled by former mayor Zaffiro who was appointed to complete Hirth’s term which concludes in 2017.

Council also elected Harper as their vice-mayor during business that was conducted Monday night.

The swearing in ceremony was attended by residents and families of the group and dignitaries including District 33 Ohio State Representative Alicia Reece, District 9 Ohio State Senator Cecil Thomas and City of Cincinnati Councilman Chris Seelbach.

The Village of Golf Manor, located in central Hamilton County, Ohio is home to 3,611 residents, comprised of 1,614 households, and 897 families according to the 2010 census.
