

NO. 2014-2

DESIGNATING JUNE 8, 2014 AS JEWISH EDUCATION DAY

WHEREAS, Moral education is a critical component in all of our lives, and

WHEREAS, Torah Jewish education has always been a fundamental part of Jewish community life as well as the lives of its individuals, and

WHEREAS, Strengthening Jewish education thus strengthens the local Jewish community as well as the general community of Golf Manor and its surroundings, and

WHEREAS, Arthur Schreiber, may he rest in peace, a life-long local resident, epitomized a love for and dedication to Jewish Education and the new Arthur Schreiber Jewish Education Center therefore bears his name, and

WHEREAS, Rabbi Baruch and Mrs. Claire Cohon as representatives of the Samuel S. and A. Irma Cohon Memorial Foundation have generously donated this building as the Arthur Schreiber Jewish Education Center, and

WHEREAS, JEEP, Jewish Education for Every Person, has been providing access to Jewish education for thousands of local people with challenges and disabilities since its inception in 2006, and

WHEREAS, Hundreds of individuals and groups, too numerous to name, have generously donated their resources, time and efforts to this noble cause.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Alan Zaffiro, declare Sunday, June 8th, 2014 as “Arthur Schreiber Jewish Education Day” in the Village of Golf Manor, Ohio.

I ask the community on that day to join us in recognizing Jewish Education and moral education in general as elements which contribute significantly to the quality of life of the residents of the Village of Golf Manor and surrounding communities.

PROCLAIMED this 14th day of April, 2014
